With this issue the MINER enters the twelfth year of its existence. In the past three years it has been greatly improved and is now quoted as the best weekly newspaper in Arizona. It is the intention of the present management to keep the paper up to its present high standard during the years to come.

Despite the turn of the tide as evidenced by the elections Tuesday, wheat, wool and cotton continue on the downward grade.

The Atlantic and Pacific railroad has donated ten thousand dollars to the midwinter fair association to aid in the construction of the buildings.

Last Tuesday's election has at least had one good result and that is to make the admission of Arizona, New Mexico and Utah a certainty this winter.

Thomas Hughes is making the Albuquerque Citizen the brightest and newsiest paper in the whole southwest. In the line of news it has no competitor.

Mohave county should have a fine display of minerals at the midwinter fair.
The board of supervisors should make an appropriation for the purpose of making a good display.

The fear that Teller would not be returned to the United States Senate should the populists be successful in Colorado caused the return of many republican-populists to the old party.

Gov. Penoyer, of Oregon, in his Thanksgiving proclamation, asks that the people offer up prayers for President Cleveland that he may be saved from the eloquent and substantial gold bug.

Grover has recalled one of his appointees to request that he settle his tailor bill. Now it he would recall Van Allen and have him inoculated with a little brain matter the country would be at ease.

More people have committed suicide in the last two months than have been reported in the first six months of the year. It is supposed that the change of season has a great deal to do with suicidal mania.

The world's fair has finally wound up its business and adjourned sine die. The admissions since the day of opening were greater than all the other world's fairs for the past thirty years rolled into one, but at the same time it was a failure from a financial point of view.

The Tombstone Prospector, on learning that ex-Judge Barnes was confined in jail at Tucson for contempt, immediately wired the following: "Moriarity are you thar." A few years ago, while Barnes was on the bench he caused the arrest of the editor of the Prospector for contempt and fined him $300 or 300 days in jail. Ye editor paid the fine, and is now jubilating over the incarceration of his old time enemy.

It is now reported that Voorhees will introduce a free coinage bill in congress at its next session. Voorhees has always been a close friend of silver and the stand he took in the extraordinary session of congress just adjourned, was a surprise to his closest and warmest friends. Should he now come to the front and influence enough of his repeal associates to silver's cause we can almost forgive him for his late action.

The democrats were not in sight after the returns of Tuesday's election came in. Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey Iowa, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kansas and South Dakota have gone glimmering. The Populists have carried Nebraska and the Democrats have carried all the southern states where elections have been held. In Virginia, where it was reasonable to suppose the third party would make decided gains the falling off was very perceptible.

Cleveland has issued temporary commissions to nearly all the appointees not acted on by the Senate before adjournment.

Sweet Bill McKinley is John Sherman's choice for the presidency in 1896.
This is the most effective way Sherman could have taken to kill the aspirations of the tariff boomer from the Buckeye State.

Gov. Hughes is expected in Phenix about the 14th of this month. The governor has been working hard for the admission of Arizona to statehood and expects to see his efforts crowned with success this winter.

The administration assigns the reason for the crushing defeat of Tuesday to the fact that the people believe the party in power should be held responsible for the present panic and enforced idleness of thousands of men throughout the country.

Judge Barnes and John Dunbar, who were imprisoned in Tucson for contempt of court about a week ago, were released on habeas corpus proceedings by Judge Baker. The trial of the Gazette staff for libel will probably be resumed in a few days.

The late international irrigation congress, recently held in Los Angeles, has done a world of good in bringing to the notice of moneyed men many irrigation project worthy of investing in and carrying through. Arizona was the field open to big projects from small investments.

Republican papers throughout the United States are jubilant over their victory of Tuesday. Viewing the result from a distance it would seem to us that if the G. O. P. failed to make gains over the vote of last year it would never go into another presidential campaign with the least shadow of success.

Spain is just now agitating the question of what shall be done with the bomb throwers of that country. The other night two bombs were thrown into a crowded theatre at Barcelona and scores of men, women and children were killed.
Bomb throwers should be drawn and quartered as a warning to others of their class.

The English have another victory to chronicle in their war on the natives of Bechuanaland. Strange to relate they defeated a large army of natives who were armed with clubs and spears, mowing them down with grape and canister from the forts. England has always had a happy faculty of educating the natives of some helpless province in the good old way.

The only way to clear up party imperfections is in the party. Boss Tweed ruled the Democrats of New York City until a man of stamina raised up and overthrew the corrupt ringsters. What Tilden accomplished in New York can be accomplished throughout the United States today. Let every man vote for the man who is sound on the vital questions and we will soon have things in America running as smoothly as can be wished for.

Many people who had their hearts set on the populists carrying Virginia are greatly disappointed with the returns from that old commonwealth. The democrats have carried things just the same as though there was no such party as the populists. The death knell of the third party has been sounded in Tuesday's election. Mrs. Lease will have to find some more suitable occupation from this day until she joins the heavenly party of the future.

This winter an attempt will be made to have the government aid in the construction of a dam in the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. The framework of the proposed dam will be of steel, so shaped that the greater the pressure against it may be the more solid it becomes.
Above this framework of steel will be a filling of boulders. A fall will be thus created that will give enough power in the shape of turbine wheels to pump out a body of water sufficient to irrigate the Wallapai and Sacramento valleys in Mohave County, Aubrey valley in Co-conino County, Chino, Williamson, Kirkland and other valleys in Yavapai County and thence on south to the vicinity of Phenix. The great cactus plain west of Wickenburg can also be irrigated from this same source of supply. No one need ever fear that the supply of water would give out, and soon everybody will recognize the fact that the Colorado will be the source of all irrigation enterprises in Arizona in the future.
